

LOGISTEED(Thailand), Ltd. Opens Logistics Center
~ Operating multiple temperature (ambient, air-conditioned, refrigerated, and frozen) at one location to streamline the supply chain ~

LOGISTEED, Ltd. is pleased to announce that its group company, LOGISTEED (Thailand), Ltd., has opened a new logistics center in Samut Prakan, near Bangkok.

The newly established logistics center can handle products in multiple temperature zones (ambient, air-conditioned, refrigerated, frozen) at one location and also has space for distributive processing. This center will enhance the efficiency of supply chains in various industries, including cold chains, healthcare, and high-functional materials.

Located 35 km from central Bangkok and 25 km from Suvarnabhumi International Airport, this multi-functional logistics center offers excellent accessibility as a distribution and transportation hub for the Bangkok metropolitan area and nearby industrial agglomeration. The center is also environmentally friendly, incorporating solar power generation facilities and LED lighting to reduce electricity consumption.

LOGISTEED (Thailand), Ltd. is working to improve transportation quality by obtaining certifications such as GDP*1, GHP*2, and CEIV Pharma*3 within Thailand.
