

LOGISTEED presents OTTAVA Accademia Special Aerial Photographer Naohiro Yamamoto and Guitarist Falcon “Above the Seven Summits Live 2025” Event Announcement

LOGISTEED, Ltd. is pleased to announce its special sponsorship of the "OTTAVA Accademia Special: Aerial Photographer Naohiro Yamamoto and Guitarist Falcon 'Above the Seven Summits Live 2025'" event, which will be held on October 24, 2025.

This experiential live event is a unique collaboration between aerial photographer Naohiro Yamamoto—currently undertaking the “Above the Seven Summits” project, which aims to capture aerial footage of the highest peaks on each of the seven continents (sponsored by LOGISTEED)—and guitarist Falcon. The event will feature a screening of aerial photographs and videos taken by Yamamoto using a motor paraglider across various locations in Japan and abroad, accompanied by Falcon’s improvised musical performance. Together, they create a multisensory experience that transcends genres. Now in its second edition, the event will offer an even more immersive environment than last year. During the talk session, Yamamoto will share his thoughts and aspirations on his upcoming challenge in January 2026, aerial photography of Aconcagua, the highest peak in South America, as the fourth installment of his project.

Since 2023, LOGISTEED has been a special sponsor of the "OTTAVA Accademia" web seminars hosted by OTTAVA*. This event was first held last year as a spin-off of those seminars. We are pleased to showcase the breathtaking aerial images of Earth captured by Yamamoto, in harmonious collaboration with Falcon’s unique musical world.
