

LOGISTEED Received the FY2025 Commendation for Distinguished Service in Emergency Medical Operations Efforts

～ Recognized for Promoting First Aid Awareness at the Matsudo Training Facility ～

LOGISTEED, Ltd. is pleased to announce that on September 16, its Matsudo Training Facility (Chiba Prefecture) was honored the FY2025 Commendation for Distinguished Service in Emergency Medical Operations by the Matsudo Fire Department. This commendation is presented to individuals or organizations that have contributed to the advancement of emergency medical services and the safety and security of citizens, with the aim of further promoting emergency medical operations.

The Matsudo Training Facility serves as a hub for human resource development within the LOGISTEED Group, offering group-based education and specialized logistics training. Since FY2009, it has continuously been certified as an Excellent Emergency Life-Saving Skills Facility*1, and has also supported the Matsudo City Emergency Life-Saving Network Program*2, establishing a rapid response system for first aid. These ongoing efforts to promote understanding of emergency medical services and the dissemination of first aid practices have been highly evaluated, leading to this commendation.

*1 Excellent Emergency Life-Saving Skills Facility: A designation by the Matsudo Fire Department for facilities with outstanding emergency life-saving skills and systems.

*2 Matsudo City Emergency Life-Saving Network Program: This initiative aims to establish a system that enables the rapid use of AEDs installed by private businesses and public institutions in emergencies such as cardiac arrest, in order to protect the lives of Matsudo City residents.
